Synopsis:

Winner of the 1998 Pulitzer Prize, as well as the Obie, New York Drama Critics, and Lucille Lortel Awards for Best Play.

How I Learned To Drive is an intellectual, provocative play about a young woman's "awakening." It is the story of a woman who learns the rules of the road and life from behind the wheel. The events unfold through a mixture of flashbacks, narrations, monologues and voice-overs. This is an exciting piece of theater and we hope you will be a part of its Westchester debut.

November 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, & 13, 2005

Thursday, Friday & Saturdays at 8 pm • Sundays at 2 pm
